The Quiz

Ascend Ed Leadership Job Search Quiz

Identify the key action steps to land your next-level instructional leadership role by answering a few questions.

The graphic features a mountain range with a dashed red line representing a path up the mountain. The path is divided into five stages, each marked with a location pin icon: 1. DISCOVER YOUR LEADERSHIP SUPERPOWER, 2. RECRUIT YOUR REFERENCES, 3. CRAFT YOUR APPLICATION ARGUMENT, 4. TRAIN FOR INTERVIEW DAY, and 5. RACE TO THE FINISH LINE. A flag is at the peak of the mountain. The word 'ASCEND' is prominently displayed in the center, with 'NEXT-LEVEL INSTRUCTIONAL LEADERSHIP' underneath it.

The following questions will diagnose any obstacles in your path and give you specific recommendations for increasing your odds at every stage of the job search.

Keep Steady

- Sleep
- Food
- Water
- Sugar
- Caffeine

Don't Tell Yourself...

- “I couldn’t possibly eat a time like this—my stomach is in knots!”
- “I can never sleep the night before a big interview.”
- “I need more caffeine than usual for a boost before my interview.”

Don't Go In To Work

If you have a big interview, take the entire day off (or go in after the interview). Pay for a sub and/or use a personal day if you need to.

Conserve Mental Energy

Mental energy is consumed by:

- Decision-making (e.g. clothes)
- Emotional self-regulation
- Physical exertion
- Low blood sugar

Outfit

- Lay out the night before
- Examine in good light
- Plan final touches after meals (tie, makeup, etc.)
- Don't eat/drink while driving
